

South Carolina Administrative Law Court

MEMORANDUM UPDATED ALC HEARING PROCEDURES COVID-19 Effective August 26, 2021

In light of the significant increase of COVID-19 cases due to the Delta variant, the Memorandum issued May 25, 2021, is rescinded and the following hearing procedures will go into effect as of today:

Masks will be required in all courtrooms for members of the public visiting the Court. However, the presiding judge, in their discretion, may allow legal counsel (or a pro se litigant) or witnesses to remove their masks while addressing the Court during the hearing or while they are testifying.
